Doing Family Together

Being a parent is a joy. The kind of joy that often feels something like... a carnival, wrapped in mutiny, sprinkled with a dash of anarchy, smothered in love, and dipped in what you can only hope is chocolate. We are all perpetually going back and forth between the moments where we feel like we're finally getting this parenting thing down and the moments where we realize we never will. Its nice to walk alongside others on the same journey.

Starting in October, we are going to have weekly groups for you and your whole family to come together with others on Sunday nights, Wed nights, or Sunday mornings to connect and walk together as we raise our families. If the whole crew can't make it, there will likely be groups for just moms or dads too. It is a life-giving, life-filled time to focus on what matters, and gain wisdom from each other. And more importantly, it's the kind of place where no one is going to judge you if your kid is the one peeing in the corner.

If this tugs at you at all, please check the box on the communication card and come hear more info next week (Sept 14) between services (for a brief amount of time). There will be delicious coffee, donuts, and a chance to see what the groups look like and where you might fit.

The flowers on the altar are provided by John and Janice K as they celebrate 50 years of marriage. All glory and honor and praise to God for every one of those years.

Adults

LifeTree Café - Come and hear powerful true stories that will draw us into a deepening, transforming faith in God. Engage with us as we join a nurse struggling to save babies in a war-torn country, a former pro golfer whose prayer life was transformed, a family faced with tragedy and a former Ethiopian prime minister in his jail cell as he receives a visit from Jesus. Each Sunday will zero in on one relevant passage in Scripture and invite honest, authentic conversation. Facilitators: Gina H, Nichole and Bert H, Paul (Fellowship A)

1st Corinthians - Join our church-wide study and sermon series on First Corinthians. This is the perfect time to dig in to the Word and hear from God in a group setting before you hear from Him through the sermon. Facilitator: Chuck T (Fellowship B)

Is there a class you'd love to see on Sunday mornings? Would you be interested in helping to lead or facilitate one? We have openings in each of the next sessions.

Session 2: Oct 26-Dec 7 (8 weeks)

Session 3: Jan 4-Mar 15 (11 weeks)

Session 4: Apr 12 - Jun 7 (8 weeks)

Write on your communication card if you have an interest.

In 1 Corinthians 11, Paul tells us of the power of Communion to forgive sins and unite us to Jesus and each other. Paul invites each of us to examine our self so that we receive this gift well. Those who receive communion well are baptized Christians who:

1. Trust in Jesus as their Savior who provides full forgiveness through His death on the cross.
2. Repent of all known sins, wanting to change their life.

In this gift we received the real presence of Jesus and a real unity with each other. If you are not in agreement it is best to refrain and then come and discuss this with a pastor. If a child has been prepared for communion by formal instruction, they are invited to receive this gift. Anyone may come to receive a blessing. Grape juice and gluten/soy/dairy/nut/corn/yeast-free options are available upon request.

Our Monthly Verse

Jesus replied: " Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. 'This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'"

Matthew 22:37-39
