DO GOOD UNTO THE...

Least of These: We want to provide for families by letting them take part in the service while their young ones (age infant to 4 yrs) are being cared for in the nursery. We are looking for 2 more couples or 4 individuals who would be willing to serve once in 6-8 weeks. Please write on your Connection Card if you are willing to care for our youngest ones.

Sleepy of These: We provide coffee and tea to give people a pick-me-up after the service each Sunday. On Friday and Saturday, everything is made ready. We just need people to come at 8:30 a.m. and plug in the coffee/water and put out the creamers, cups and snacks already purchased.

Please write on your Connection Card if you are willing to care for our youngest ones or come in early to turn on the coffee.

One Goal of Pentecost

These Jews from all of these nations heard the disciples “speaking of the mighty deeds of God” (2:11). Peter will shortly preach the gospel, leading to the conversion of 3,000 souls. But the goal of the gospel is the glory of God. As John Piper has put it, “The reason missions exists is because worship does not.” In Revelation 5, John has a vision of the nations worshipping before God’s throne. That should be our vision as well.

Note that not all responded positively, even though this was a “Class A” miracle. Even miracles will not convince mockers, who do not want to submit their lives to the Sovereign God. The Book of Acts is a record not only of might conversions, but also of fierce opposition to the preaching of the gospel. We should expect the same response. But we know that our God will triumph, that every knee will someday bow to Jesus Christ as Lord, to the glory of God the Father (Phil. 2:9-11). Taken, in part, from Bible.org, Lesson 4: The Meaning of Pentecost (Acts 2:1-13) by Steven Cole led worship songs for several weeks. Linda M assisted with the younger class in showing Jesus' love.

We have continued to support Sudhakar, a teenager in India, with our offering. It was a great year of learning from God's Word and finding out more about how to love God and others.

Communion Information

Altar: Sharon

Elders: Scott, Lee, Kurt

In 1 Corinthians 11, Paul tells us of the power of Communion to forgive sins and unite us to Jesus and each other. Paul invites each of us to examine our self so that we receive this gift well. Those who receive communion well are baptized Christians who:

1. Trust in Jesus as their Savior who provides full forgiveness through His death on the cross.
2. Repent of all known sins, wanting to change their life.

In this gift we received the real presence of Jesus and a real unity with each other. If you are not in agreement it is best to refrain and then come and discuss this with a pastor. If a child has been prepared for communion by formal instruction, they are invited to receive this gift. Anyone may come to receive a blessing. Grape juice and gluten/soy/dairy/nut/corn/yeast-free options are available upon request.

1 & 2 Peter - “Rocky Johnson” You probably know him better as Peter, a name that means “the rock.” And his dad was named Jonah, a variant of John. Thus, Rocky Johnson, aka Simon bar Jonah. At times he spoke with simple eloquence, but other times he couldn’t help put his foot in his mouth. At times his bravery was inspiring, but other times his cowardice makes us wince. Yet God used this disciple of Jesus to help start His church, and we have two of his letters in the Bible: 1 & 2 Peter.

But does Rocky still speak to the issues of today’s world, or has he become irrelevant? Let’s find out together as I guide a Bible Study on the letters of Rocky Johnson. Bring your Bibles and any study helps you like, or just bring yourself. And as we dig into this Word of God, we might be surprised by how much Peter seems to have been written exactly for us! (Teacher - Pastor Mark, Fellowship A)

COTTAGE MEETINGS

From April 15 - May 30 we will be having Cottage Meetings to share openly about how we think Jesus is leading BSLC so that Pastor Mark has a comprehensive view of who we are. Shirley L is coordinating the meetings, so if you want to sign up for a meeting, please contact her.

Pew Art - We have some artists, including children, who can express their love of Jesus and the truth in beautiful ways. There are bright yellow cards in the pew holders that you or younger ones can use to interact through drawing. We want to recognize this gift and benefit from it. Simply take a picture of your art and email it to Kathy@bslc.com; we will post them on the wall before the service starts on the next Sunday.
