Compassion International Sunday

We will hear about Compassion International from Mark S today. C.I. seeks to release children from poverty in Jesus' name through a holistic approach to child development. They help children gain the skills to succeed, including schooling, health care and partnering with the family of each child. They choose to work through the local churches "and each church partner tailors our holistic child development model to the contextualized needs of the children in its community, to best deliver the whole-life care the children need."

Elder Nominees - Examination Period

The following candidates have accepted nomination for election as elder. The next two weeks provides an examination period during which congregation members may provide written comment in confidence to Pastor Mark regarding the qualifications of nominees to serve as elder, affirming nominees or expressing reservations (Biblical Qualifications: 1 Timothy 3:1-7, 5:17-20; 2 Timothy 2:14-26; Titus 1:6-9; 1 Peter 5:1-4). To be considered, all comments must be signed; sources will be held in strictest confidence.

Communion Information

Altar: Sue & Darlene

Elders: Lee, Chuck, Gary

In 1 Corinthians 11, Paul tells us of the power of Communion to forgive sins and unite us to Jesus and each other. Paul invites each of us to examine our self so that we receive this gift well. Those who receive communion well are baptized Christians who:

1. Trust in Jesus as their Savior who provides full forgiveness through His death on the cross.
2. Repent of all known sins, wanting to change their life.

In this gift we received the real presence of Jesus and a real unity with each other. If you are not in agreement it is best to refrain and then come and discuss this with a pastor. If a child has been prepared for communion by formal instruction, they are invited to receive this gift. Anyone may come to receive a blessing. Grape juice and gluten/soy/dairy/nut/corn/yeast-free options are available upon request.

Galatians - Freedom - Which would you prefer: slavery or freedom? Unfortunately, many people today equate freedom with "personal choice" or "do your own thing" without regard for God's Word. Yet with Christian freedom comes Christian responsibility – toward God and for others. As we study Galatians, we will look at the freedom God wants us to live in, especially as we become more and more ready to call a new pastor. (Teacher: Pastor Mark, Fellowship A)

New Class for the Summer - GOSPEL DNA

Some people are surprised to learn that the LCMS once had a reputation for being one of the more progressive, outreach-oriented church bodies around and on the forefront of missions. It wasn't something relegated to a committee or a board; it was our essence, our DNA!

During July and August, we will rediscover this DNA, learning about the rich history of the LCMS and the different Gospel Strands that tie into it, including locally right here in Oregon. Having this picture of the missional movement of the LCMS over the years will help us bring that spirit into the present day and keep us moving forward as we prepare to receive a new pastor. Each installment consists of a video element and a study guide with questions, a Scriptural focus, and possible action steps.

Moving forward as a church in the 21st century doesn't necessarily mean reinventing ourselves. Sometimes it is simply rediscovering who we have always been.

Let's Pray for Them!

The 31 people on the Mexico Mission trip appreciate your prayers. They should be crossing the border this morning and then traveling down the Baja Peninsula. Let's pray for them until they return on June 25. Our prayers are mighty on their behalf, so let's pray audacious prayers so that Jesus receives great glory.

- Safe border crossings and travel
- Servant attitude in each participant.
- Flexibility to be ready for whatever the needs will be each day.
