

Summary and Prayer

As a body of believers

Lord bind us together in your love

Bless us as we worship You in joy, confession, thankfulness, and praise

Strengthen us as we daily seek your will through prayer and your Word

Inspire us to faithfully and courageously follow your son Jesus

Lord, it is your will and not ours that we seek

May each and every one of us welcome and take full ownership of

These, the revealed desires of your heart for our body

For today and our tomorrows
Lord, work mightily within each of us -

Detail

Our Mission, adopted several years ago, is for the present and is ongoing.

Our Vision is for the next five years and beyond.

Scripture is listed, "so that your faith might not rest on human wisdom but on God's power."

1 Corinthians 2: 5 (NIV)

Our Mission

Living Christ's Love
for Our Family,
Community, and World

A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another. John 13: 34-35 (NIV)

Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age. Matthew 28: 19-20 (NIV)

Our Mission embraces those who live beyond our neighborhoods and community. Evidence of our commitment to live Christ's love for these peoples include engaging in personal relationships, freely sharing the gospel, diligently praying and supporting, and unconditionally loving them, as well as celebrating and helping those whom the Holy Spirit calls to serve them.

Our Vision

Develop Greater Intimacy with God

We know that we have come to know him if we keep his commands. Whoever says, 'I know him,' but does not do what he commands is a liar, and the truth is not in that person. But if anyone obeys his word, love for God is truly made complete in them. This is how we know we are in him: Whoever claims to live in him must live as Jesus did. 1 John 2: 3-6 (NIV)

Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience. Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity. Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful. Colossians 3: 12-15 (NIV)

Evidence of our owning and developing a greater intimacy with God includes God-centered prayerful decision making, contentment, gratefulness and other fruits of the Holy Spirit, along with an awareness of His movement in the world as each of us eagerly seeks to invite others to follow Jesus.

Growth begins by gathering together in worship, celebrating our joy in a living God through song, prayer, sacraments, creeds of faith, and authentic sharing. Our worship is an open invitation, approachable and understandable, to learn more about what it means to be in a deep relationship with God, and to imitate the life of Jesus through applicable, Biblical teaching.

As all of us grow in our relationship with God and embrace our place in His family, we recognize and accept the responsibilities that come with being part of a family and an apprentice at furthering His work.

There are clear pathways for growth that make it easy for all to engage. We have tailored pathways for individuals, families, and leaders within our body.

Our Vision

Invest in and Care Deeply for Our Church Family

Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another — and all the more as you see the Day approaching. Hebrews 10: 23-25 (NIV)

Carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ. Galatians 6: 2 (NIV)

Evidence of our jointly owning and investing in our church family is reflected in how we provide a safe harbor for following Jesus and for nurturing one another. We willingly lay our sins before God either through personal or collective admission and openly accept His grace and forgiveness. As our relationship with God and others deepen, we openly extend grace to each other, earnestly praying together and for our family as we all hold one another accountable for our words and actions.

We recognize that every man, woman, and child has value, has spiritual gifts, and has a purpose within this body of believers. We celebrate each other's unique gifts and passions, and encourage one another to discover their distinct identity in Christ as we each learn and grow into the people God wants us to be. We value deep relationships with each other. We consider fellowship to be a natural extension of our worship, and we take time to simply enjoy one another. We are intentional in our efforts, as individuals and as a body, to serve one another, support one another, and bear one another's burdens.

Our staff and our leaders are a valued part of our family. Every one of us recognizes the sacrificial ways in which they serve our family, and is intentional in supporting and building them up.

Our Vision

Serve Generously and Know Personally Those within Our Community

In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven. Matthew 5: 16 (NIV)

Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins. Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling. Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms. If anyone speaks, they should do so as one who speaks the very words of God. If anyone serves, they should do so with the strength God provides, so that in all things God may be praised through Jesus Christ. To him be the glory and the power for ever and ever. Amen.
I Peter 4: 8-11 (NIV)

Evidence of each of us owning the development of personal relationships with our neighbors is seen through our enthusiasm of doing ministry. Serving alongside people within our community honors God and inspires all of us to serve more, that our community may see and know Christ through us.

We believe that Jesus' life was a life worth imitating, and want all people to experience the same deep relationship with God that brings us joy. We strive to become more like Jesus, and model that as we walk authentically in relationship with the people God has put into each of our lives. We illustrate that best by knowing Jesus, by extending grace, and by loving others as He did. We live and love through our actions. We gladly share the gospel and encourage one another to do the same. It is in these relationships that we create space for the Holy Spirit to work and make new followers of Jesus.

We recognize need right here in our community — from the spiritually poor in need of Christ to poverty to foster care to single-parent families — and are called to love these neighbors as ourselves. We help individuals of all ages within our body identify their unique spiritual gifts for service and empower them to go out and serve. Each of us is resolute and unafraid to try new things. Where we succeed in meeting needs and making a difference in people's lives, we share that with each other, and create clear pathways for others within our church family to become engaged in similar service.

We Value

Deep Relationships

We believe transformation occurs in relationships, and that programs should not exist simply to attract people to our building but instead to create an avenue for these relationships. We are convinced that authentic relationships create space for the Holy Spirit to work, and are our best hope for developing disciples within our own body and seeing new followers of Jesus.

Authentic Faith

We are called to live our faith, not just study it. In all things, we want to be a body of believers that are actively and transparently living our faith.

Unique Gifts and Passions	We believe God has given each of us a unique identity, unique gifts, and a unique calling to service. We value this diversity and the empowerment of our people to use their unique gifts to His glory.
Making Disciples	We believe Jesus' life is a life worth imitating, and we want that for ourselves and for all others around us. Making disciples is not an activity or a program. The development of disciples within our own body and the leading of others to become followers of Jesus is something that should be interwoven into everything we do.
