The flowers on the altar this Sunday are provided by Teri C in honor and celebration of her mother, Irma's 102nd birthday.

We have a staffed nursery upstairs for any tired or restless young ones (ages infant to 4 years), as well as a Cry Room at the back of the sanctuary with speakers for hearing the service.

January Monthly Verse

"Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moth and rust do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also." Matthew 6.19-21

The Least Important Miracle

Keep Doing!

The church can no longer bank on just providing content and a message as their main commodity, because the younger generation can google content all day. The value of content is at an all-time low in this digital world. You don't need to go to church to get content. Millennials can live-stream a message, download a podcast, or watch a YouTube video, but there's still no app for genuine connection and life-on-life discipleship. That's what the church can provide that the world can't. Keep Doing!

Ordinary Gems of Lent

What are the objects, the things, that you most associate with Lent and Jesus' journey to the cross? Is it the thirty pieces of silver for which Judas betrayed Jesus? The dice used by the soldiers to determine who would get Jesus' very last earthly possession? The whip? The crown of thorns? For our midweek services this Lent, we are going to devotionally consider several of these objects. As we do so, each week we will learn to appreciate yet one more facet of this priceless gem of Jesus' sacrifice.

And so that you have true "take home points" as a result of these services, each household in attendance is invited to literally take home the objects we will be considering. It will start Ash Wednesday (March 6th) with a simple wooden cross. Each week there will be an additional item to include around your cross, as we follow Jesus to His death and anticipate His promised resurrection.

A light supper will be served from 6:00-6:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall, and the services will begin at 6:45 p.m. in the sanctuary, concluding roughly by 7:30 p.m.

Communion Information

Elders: Scott, Bob, Kurt

In 1 Corinthians 11, Paul tells us of the power of Communion to forgive sins and unite us to Jesus and each other. Paul invites each of us to examine our self so that we receive this gift well. Those who receive communion well are baptized Christians who:

1. Trust in Jesus as their Savior who provides full forgiveness through His death on the cross.
2. Repent of all known sins, wanting to change their life.

In this gift we received the real presence of Jesus and a real unity with each other. If you are not in agreement it is best to refrain and then come and discuss this with a pastor. If a child has been prepared for communion by formal instruction, they are invited to receive this gift. Anyone may come to receive a blessing. Grape juice and gluten/soy/dairy/nut/corn/yeast-free options are available upon request.

Letters for Us - Come spend some time with us as we go through Paul's letters to a young pastor, Timothy. We will gaze deeply into these letters, hearing the same words, and being prepared to seek and call our next pastor. The class will bring us great value and give us insight and wisdom. (Teacher: Brad Owens, Fellowship A)

Wednesdays 6:30 p.m.

The Truth Project - We live in an age where the very concept of truth is challenged. But how do we keep from being caught up in all the confusion? For eight consecutive Wednesday evenings from January 9 through February 27, you are invited to be part of an in-depth

Christian worldview experience called "The Truth Project" produced by Focus on the Family. Each night features a video presentation by Dr. Del Tackett followed by group discussion and debriefing that concludes by 8:00. Come prepared to exercise your brain, and your faith!

Making Our Mothering Significant

Being a mom is not easy. The demands are great and so is the desire to raise your kids so that they are confident, courteous, capable and caring. We have an opportunity on the 2nd and 4th Monday of each month from 9:30-11:00 a.m. where you can share the ups and downs of being a parent, enjoy a cup of tea or coffee without being interrupted, reflect on a short devotional and be strengthened by prayer. All moms with kids still at home are welcome to come. Trina Babcock will be facilitating the group which begins this Monday.
