

Do Good with Jesus

Enjoy People Warmly on a Sunday

If you know the value of being able to get answers to your questions and welcomed warmly, we have a role for you. The Connect Center is where new visitors can be given directions and request name tags and where notes are taken for others in the office. This is a once-a-month role that involves just before and after the service on a Sunday. Any interested persons can contact Patti in the office.

Beautiful Lawn Upkeep

We have a very nice lawn. It shows that we care about our property. That doesn't happen by lawn gnomes. No, we have teams of two from May - Nov that rotate once every 4-5 weeks to mow and edge. If you would like to be an edger on a team to make a beautiful lawn, please contact Ron W to volunteer or to get more detailed information.

Concordia University Symposium and Concerts

We have a staffed nursery upstairs for any tired or restless young ones (ages infant to 4 years), as well as a Cry Room at the back of the sanctuary with speakers for hearing the service.

February Monthly Verse

“Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. 1 Cor. 13.4-7

The Monkey is On God's Back

As kingdom farmers in postmodern soil, we must welcome this mysterious nature of that path to faith. In fact, there is something spiritually liberating when we admit and declare what is beyond us and where we are powerless. We cannot create life. It is impossible for us to predict why some of our friends will choose Jesus and why others just won't. We don't know how to change hearts. We don't know which seed will take root and which will bounce off the hardened ground.

Our friends have reminded us that conversion is much more soul-deep and mysterious than all that. The path to faith is mysterious. To admit that is liberation. The monkey is off our back, and onto God's back, where it belongs. The Scriptures teach us that God is ultimately in control of salvation. No one, Jesus reminded his followers, can come all the way down the path to Jesus unless God calls them (John 6:44, 65).

Taken in part from I Once Was Lost by Don Everts and Doug Schaupp

The Office will be closed on Monday for President's Day.

Next week, while Pastor Mark and Carolyn are on vacation in Hawaii, we will have the NW District President, Paul L, as our guest speaker.

Communion Information

Altar: Sharon

Elders: Lee, Steve, Gary

In 1 Corinthians 11, Paul tells us of the power of Communion to forgive sins and unite us to Jesus and each other. Paul invites each of us to examine our self so that we receive this gift well. Those who receive communion well are baptized Christians who:

1. Trust in Jesus as their Savior who provides full forgiveness through His death on the cross.
2. Repent of all known sins, wanting to change their life.

In this gift we received the real presence of Jesus and a real unity with each other. If you are not in agreement it is best to refrain and then come and discuss this with a pastor. If a child has been prepared for communion by formal instruction, they are invited to receive this gift. Anyone may come to receive a blessing. Grape juice and gluten/soy/dairy/nut/corn/yeast-free options are available upon request.

Letters for Us - Come spend some time with us as we to go through Paul's letters to a young pastor, Timothy. We will gaze deeply into these letters, hearing the same words, and being prepared to seek and call our next pastor. The class will bring us great value and give us insight and wisdom. (Teacher: Brad Owens, Fellowship A)

Wednesdays 6:30 p.m.

The Truth Project - We live in an age where the very concept of truth is challenged. But how do we keep from being caught up in all the confusion? On Wednesday evenings through February 27, you are invited to be part of an in-depth Christian worldview experience called "The Truth Project" produced by Focus on the Family. Each night features a video presentation by Dr. Del Tackett followed by group discussion and debriefing that ends by 8:00. Come prepared to exercise your brain, and your faith!

Progressive Luncheon for Ladies!

Think back to a time when you had really enjoyable time with other women. Needless to say, it probably involved food. Well, get your taste buds and laughing muscles ready for a unique kind of luncheon! Women's Fellowship is putting on a Progressive Luncheon on Saturday, March 16, from 11:00 to 1:00 p.m..

What is unique about this luncheon is we will move from table to table with each course, giving us the opportunity to interact and laugh with more women. This is DEFINITELY a luncheon you want to invite your friends to!

Please sign up on the Connection Card or in the lobby by Feb 24. That will help the team prepare and know how many table hosts are needed. Invite your friends! Women's Fellowship Team

Your Ideas are Welcome

These kinds of events for women bring us together to share life and enjoy one another. If you have some ideas or like to work in the background, we invite you to join our planning team. You don't have to be at every event or do all the work. We are a team and the more we work together, the better is each event. If you have something to offer, please check the box on the Connection Card.
