Our Monthly Verse

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

1 Corinthians 13.4-7

CareNetwork Jesus the Romantic

"Follow God's example, therefore, as dearly loved children and walk in the way of love, just as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us as a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God." Ephesians 5:1-2

Everything in the world is about Jesus: every story illustrating the gospel; every holiday, sacred or secular, is holy precisely because it is a day. And certainly romance is included in the scope of everything in the world that is about Jesus.

Yes, romance and all that word implies belong to that divine Lover: Saint Valentine and all his retainers, from the red roses to the candle-lit dinners, even down to the tiny candy hearts — they all point to Jesus, the great Wooer, who, not content with passively inviting, by his Spirit sovereignly draws his beloved to himself.

(Excerpting from Andrew Shanks, Desiring God)

Communion Information

Elders: John / Chuck / Steve M
Altar: Sharon Scott / Joe / Steve H

In 1 Corinthians 11, Paul tells us of the power of Communion to forgive sins and unite us to Jesus and each other. Paul invites each of us to examine our self so that we receive this gift well. Those who receive communion well are baptized Christians who:

1. Trust in Jesus as their Savior who provides full forgiveness through His death on the cross.
2. Repent of all known sins, wanting to change their life.

In this gift we received the real presence of Jesus and a real unity with each other. If you are not in agreement it is best to refrain and then come and discuss this with a pastor. If a child has been prepared for communion by formal instruction, they are invited to receive this gift. Anyone may come to receive a blessing. Grape juice and gluten/soy/dairy/nut/corn/yeast-free options are available upon request.

Faith & Practice, Then & Now: Through the Acts of the early Christian church, God speaks to us as the church of today. What "acts" does God desire of us as the BSLC body? In this class we will examine each passage the Sunday before it's preached. (Chuck T - Fellowship A)

A Lasting Promise: Learn to enhance and deepen commitment, to problem-solve as a team, to stop an argument before damage is done, and more. For all who want to develop and keep the marriage you desire. Based on the book A Lasting Promise ($5/ book) (Tom & Liz D - Fellowship C)

The Gospel in a Changing Culture

We will be giving space to process together the changes that are happening in our culture and what it looks for us, the Church, to be students of this culture and yet living/presenting a relevant Gospel message. We would like all ages to give input and grapple with the complexities of this age during this three week class. (Stori and the D2MC Team - Fellowship B)
