How Will You Live?

“And Jesus said, . . . and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.”
—Mark 14:62

The world in which we live is full of pessimism. No Christian has the scriptural right to go around wringing his hands wondering what we are to do in the face of the present world situation. The Scripture says that in the midst of persecution, confusion, wars, and rumors of wars, we are to comfort one another with the knowledge that our Lord Jesus Christ is coming back in triumph, glory, and majesty. Many times when I go to bed at night I think to myself that before I awaken Christ may come. Sometimes when I get up and look at the dawn I think that perhaps this is the day He will come. He has told us Christians to be watching constantly and to be ready, “for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh” (Matthew 24:44). Do you think Christ will come today? “Probably not,” you say. It is on just such a day that He may come. What a glorious time of reunion it’s going to be, when we shall be caught up with Him!

Prayer for the day: Thank You, Jesus, for the hope that even today I may have the joy of seeing You face to face!

Devotion by Billy Graham, February 18, 2018

He went Home on Feb 21. Thanks, Billy, for your faithful witness.

LENTEN SERVICES

We will have Lenten services on Wednesday nights at 7:00 p.m.. The Lenten services include a 6:00 p.m. dinner, with time to enjoy one another before the service. Youth activities will continue as usual.

Kathy S and her family would like to thank all of those who provided food for the luncheon after the memorial service of her father, Erhard. Also a big thank you goes to Dora M who coordinated the luncheon. Your efforts made for a very special memory honoring his life.

ADULTS

A Survey of Luke: The Gospel of Luke is where we see Jesus living among us. If we are to become more like Him, then we too will act out our faith as He did on a day to day basis. We will learn from Him how he nurtured His relationships of UP, IN and OUT. Bring your Bible and readiness to view life through Jesus’ eyes and live a greater faith. (Leader: Lee L, Fellowship B)

Women Walking Together: A relaxed and informal space for women of all ages, seasons and walks of life to freely connect, form community, and enjoy time together. This is a non-intimidating place if you are new, feel lost or not sure where you fit. (Leaders: Various, Room 101)

All are invited to join others on Sunday mornings at 8:00 a.m. to pray with like-minded brothers and sisters. You don’t have to be a vocal pray-er. Having many who silently agree with the prayers prayed is another plea lifted before God. Children and youth are welcome too. Sometimes their faith is stronger than adults.
