Coffee and Tea Service

Through June 2, we are testing out new flavors of coffee and offering a new location for coffee...in the lobby (not offering coffee in the fellowship hall until that date). We want to see if it is easier to get coffee without having to go into another room. You can enjoy your choice of beverage in the lobby or take it into the fellowship hall. As you do this, we invite you to take a moment and give us your feedback on what you like or dislike (response forms by the coffee). At the end of the testing, we will make decisions about the plan going forward. Thanks for your participation.

Our Monthly Verse

This, then, is how you should pray: 'Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.' Matthew 6:9-13

Feeling Overwhelmed by Problems?

"Love never hurts a neighbor, so loving is obeying all the law. Do this because we live in an important time. It is now time for you to wake up from your sleep, because our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed." Romans 13:10-11 MSG

We are thirsty. Not thirsty for fame, possessions, passion, or power. We've drunk from those pools. They are salt water in the desert. They don't quench—they kill. "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness....." Righteousness. That's it. That's what we are thirsty for. We're thirsty for a clean conscience. We crave a clean slate. We yearn for a fresh start. We pray for a hand which will enter the dark cavern of our world and do for the one thing we can't do for ourselves—make us right again.

Jesus, we are a ragged lot, bound together by broken dreams and collapsed promises. We come to you Jesus, for only you can make us right again.
(excerpted from God's Inspirational Promise Book with Max Lucado)

Communion Information

Elders: Kurt / Chuck / Lee
Altar: Sharon Joe / Steve / Steve

In 1 Corinthians 11, Paul tells us of the power of Communion to forgive sins and unite us to Jesus and each other. Paul invites each of us to examine our self so that we receive this gift well. Those who receive communion well are baptized Christians who:

1. Trust in Jesus as their Savior who provides full forgiveness through His death on the cross.
2. Repent of all known sins, wanting to change their life.

In this gift we received the real presence of Jesus and a real unity with each other. If you are not in agreement it is best to refrain and then come and discuss this with a pastor. If a child has been prepared for communion by formal instruction, they are invited to receive this gift. Anyone may come to receive a blessing. Grape juice and gluten/soy/dairy/nut/corn/yeast-free options are available upon request.

Ephesians - We will focus on the fundamentals of the Christian faith that the Apostle Paul so wonderfully presents in the Book of Ephesians. Even though he wrote to the church in Ephesus in the first century, he is equally writing to us 21st century believers in regards to being alive in and one in Christ, being saved by grace, being God's workmanship, and promoting unity in the church. But wait....there's more! Paul also presents to us The Full Armor Of God, that we may be protected in the arena of spiritual warfare. (Facilitated by Kurt W - Fellowship A)

Following God's Heart - this class is taking a break for now.

"And he came to the disciples and found them sleeping. And he said to Peter, "So, could you not watch with me one hour? Watch and pray that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak." Matthew 26:40-41 (ESV)
