

GROW YOUR OWN FOOD - We have 5 garden plots open for use this coming season at $25 per plot. Each plot is about 8' x 10' and has direct access to water (can even put in drip system for easy summer watering). Some even are partially planted. Grow your own veggies, fruits, or herbs. This garden is not just for BSLC folks, so inform a neighbor, friend at work, or family member who could be interested. Contact Steve or Greta

Stephen Ministry will host guest speakers from Wilderness Journey Ministries, Tuesday, June 16, from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. at BSLC in Fellowship B. The topic: How to address Spiritual Crisis Issues with people who are coping with death.

Dr. Karen Haren and Sue Frymark, R.N. help people cope with life threatening illness from diagnosis to death and all phases in between. Their goal is to shine the light of Christ in the dark times of terminal illness. They will also briefly preview their 9 week course and field your questions. We hope to offer that course at BSLC in the near future. This is a general invitation and we encourage you to invite others to participate. For more information: www.wjministries.org. We hope to see you there. Kathy D, Stephen Ministry Leader

For Ron G as he goes with to Mongolia

- Physical health and safety during Ron's entire time away from Oregon, June 18-July 30.
- Spiritual protection from schemes and attacks.
- Excellence in teaching with quick student rapport and sensitive insight into individual student needs.
- Winsome sharing about the path of life and His atoning love.
- Open hearts and minds among current Mongolian students and former Chinese students.
- To serve in the strength God provides so that He alone is praised.
- To be strong and courageous, not worrisome or discouraged, in a new nation with students who are English teachers, rather than my familiar undergraduate technology majors.
- For health, safety, and freedom from "drama" for my five-generation household during my absence.
- For humility and wisdom in sharing relevant Asia teaching experiences with my teammates, who are first-timers.

The flowers on the altar are provided by Bobby and Ingrid M in celebration of 43 years together as husband and wife. Glory and honor to God.

We are recognizing our graduating seniors today. They have all accomplished a benchmark in life. Let us keep them in prayer as they follow Jesus into the next part of their journey.

In 1 Corinthians 11, Paul tells us of the power of Communion to forgive sins and unite us to Jesus and each other. Paul invites each of us to examine our self so that we receive this gift well. Those who receive communion well are baptized Christians who:

1. Trust in Jesus as their Savior who provides full forgiveness through His death on the cross.
2. Repent of all known sins, wanting to change their life.

In this gift we received the real presence of Jesus and a real unity with each other. If you are not in agreement it is best to refrain and then come and discuss this with a pastor. If a child has been prepared for communion by formal instruction, they are invited to receive this gift. Anyone may come to receive a blessing. Grape juice and gluten/soy/dairy/nut/corn/yeast-free options are available upon request.
