

Do Good with Jesus

On June 1, we have the privilege and responsibility to pray. Our world needs it. We need it. Our families need it. There is great joy in praying together. Jesus meets and guides us and that brings us joy.

If coffee in the morning just feels and tastes right, how would you like to make that happen for our Sunday family? You could bless your fellow java lovers by preparing and cleaning up of coffee service. You will be trained and made comfortable with everything. Simply choose which Sunday(s) would work for you. Contact Paul or Nancy Potter or sign-up at Welcome Center.

- That attitudes stay humble, even in tiredness.
- For vehicles to run smoothly.
- That the Spirit would continue to transform each person.

Invitation and Challenge

Jesus created a highly inviting, but highly challenging, culture for His disciples to function and grow within. In much the same way, Jesus invites each one of us into a relationship with Him where He challenges us to change. That is what He then wants us to do with others: invite people into a covenantal relationship and challenge that person to live into his or her true identity in very direct, yet graceful, ways. Both dynamics work together, then you will see people grow into the people God has created them to be. As we build a culture of discipleship, we will learn to balance invitation and challenge appropriately.

Summer Sunday Schedule

“Last Sunday” Potluck

You are welcome to continue the gift of this day in the Fellowship Hall after the service as we sit down to eat at the “Last Sunday” Potluck for June. If you didn't bring anything, that is OK. There should be enough for everyone. Come and rejoice in God's provision.

We have the space until 2:00, so we will play games, cards, dominoes or Yahtzee and have some fun and laughter together.

Our Monthly Verse

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law. Galatians 5:22-23

Wednesday Evening Fun & Friends
