Resolving the Heart of Conflict
Tuesday, August 7 from 7:00-8:30 p.m.
Guest Speaker: Anna Hoesly

Stephen Ministry is hosting another excellent evening seminar led by our talented and beloved Anna H.

Anna has her Masters in Marriage and Family Therapy from George Fox University and is a certified mediator. She currently mediates conflicts in families and in non-profit organizations, including churches.

We currently live in a world that is divided into "us" and "them", and that gap seems to be getting wider and more hostile all around us. We see it in our politics, our workplaces, our churches, and our personal conflicts. But we as Christians are called to a different way.

"Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God".

We are called into the gap; to be a bridge between divided positions and hostilities. Learn how to have the heart of a peacemaker, and learn clear steps to be an agent of peace amid the conflicts of others.

Serving Where Your Passion Is

Elders are working to support ministries in developing lay leadership and ministry plans. The following two areas in particular are currently in need of lay leadership in order for them to be ready to move ahead with a ministry plan by the August Congregational Meeting: Women's Ministry and Community Ministries (FPNO, Clothing Boutique, CSC). If you have a passion for seeing our women grow and feel connected or if your heart is drawn to seeing BSLC be a vibrant and active face in our community, then we invite you to consider serving on a leadership team for one of these areas, please contact an elder or email elders@bslc.com.

July Monthly Verse

"For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord." Romans 8.38-39

8 Advantages to a Date Day

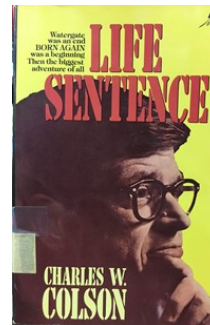

Today I'm going super practical as I share one of the best ways to use a vacation day from work. We try to do date days every year on our anniversary, and 1-2 other times throughout the year. We love them and think they're different than the standard date nights most of us experience. Here is how it can be better and add variety to your time together:

1. Lunch is cheaper than dinner.
2. Kids are in school or can go to a friend's or family's home.
3. Some places are not open at night giving you more options.
4. You have energy rather than going out after a full day.
5. Less traffic or people at places.
6. More time to enjoy one another...and rest.
7. Better options if weather is a factor.
8. You can have the house to yourselves. Priceless!

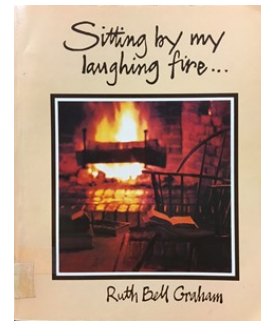

It's not rocket science. And yes, there are some advantages to the date night over the date day. But, in my experience, the date day is underrated and under-known!

Time for a Good Book!

Our Library is stocked with great books. Many have old covers, but the words and stories inside still hold treasures that all ages can enjoy.

Here are four books that fit nicely in your hand as you sit in a comfy chair with a breeze tousling your hair and a nice beverage of your choice cooling your throat.

Let's Pray for Our Directors Board

We have a group of people who humbly seek to govern this body with love and wisdom. They meet monthly and stay in contact throughout the month if needed. They lead our congregational meetings and keep track of our finances and make decisions regarding monetary needs. Each one fulfills their role, taking on specific tasks and bringing that information to each board meeting so that all are informed. They work in unity with the Elders Board to lead us through the year. Let us give thanks for them and pray for their judgement and hearts to be in line with Jesus.
