

Do Good with Jesus

The Lutheran Women's Missionary League

LWML is the official women's auxiliary of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. For almost 75 years, the LWML has focused on affirming each woman's relationship with Christ, encouraging and equipping women to live out their Christian lives in active mission ministries and to support global mission.

One way anyone can join in this ministry is through putting your spare change in a Mite box. When your Mite box is filled, you can return the change (in a baggie) to the office or to Eunice M. Empty Mite boxes are available in the lobby or by the snacks in the Fellowship Hall between services today. The treats in the Fellowship Hall have been given by our BSLC LWML chapter.

On October 11 at 7:00 PM our local LWML group is meeting for mission projects planning, fellowship and treats! We have a project opportunity for knitters! Join us in Fellowship B on that Tuesday.

Kitchen Cleaners Unite!

If you like having a clean kitchen or like to clean other people's kitchens, then we are looking for some volunteers to assist with washing coffee cups/dishes after Sunday service. (This task is not in the responsibilities of our custodians or office staff.) The dishwasher has easy instructions posted on it and the dishes can be washed on Sunday after late service or Monday morning. You can serve at your availability...1x/year, weekly, 1x/month, etc. Just let Patti or other office staff know of when you would like to do it. Help keep our kitchen clean.

Let's Show Our Appreciation

In Protestant denominations, October has been identified as Pastor Appreciation month. Think about some ways you, your family, your small group, or even the congregation, can encourage Pete demonstrating our/your love for him. This is not to say that other roles and activities of ministry are not important and worthy of appreciation, but in October, we can take the time to specifically honor Pete. Some ways we can do that:

1. Pray regularly for Pete, Melissa and their four girls
2. Authorize the formation of a special committee to "care for pastor".
3. Express appreciation, written and spoken.
4. Respect his time, and encourage him to get appropriate rest and renewal.
5. Live in peace, and deal with conflict in biblical ways before going to him.
6. Discover and encourage him in his personal interests.
7. Support a strategy for professional connections, including outside of ministry.
8. Encourage him to plan significant and meaningful time with his loved ones.
9. Lovingly insist he take time for prayer retreats, and provide resources/volunteers for his duties to be covered in his absence.
10. Ask Melissa what special/unique challenges confront her, and be sensitive to expectations inappropriately placed upon her.

CareNetwork

Show Them You Care!

When you see people who are sad, lonely, or grief-stricken, don't just tell them you care—show them you care. Ask how they are. Listen to what they have to say. Share the love of Jesus. And if their need is great, encourage them to consider Stephen Ministry as a way to receive the transforming love and care of Jesus.

A Stephen Minister can come alongside what you are already doing and help your loved one to cope, discern, release, forgive, endure, and draw close to God as He draws close to them. Show them you care, and you can make a real difference in their life by connecting them with Care-giver.

If you would like more information on our Stephen Ministry, please call Kathy D. to learn how you can benefit from a Stephen Ministry Relationship.

In 1 Corinthians 11, Paul tells us of the power of Communion to forgive sins and unite us to Jesus and each other. Paul invites each of us to examine our self so that we receive this gift well. Those who receive communion well are baptized Christians who:

1. Trust in Jesus as their Savior who provides full forgiveness through His death on the cross.
2. Repent of all known sins, wanting to change their life.

In this gift we received the real presence of Jesus and a real unity with each other. If you are not in agreement it is best to refrain and then come and discuss this with a pastor. If a child has been prepared for communion by formal instruction, they are invited to receive this gift. Anyone may come to receive a blessing. Grape juice and gluten/soy/dairy/nut/corn/yeast-free options are available upon request.

ADULTS

Love As Jesus Loved: The love that flows from is life is a reflection of your Christlike character. But what does that look like? By cultivating trust in your relationships, practicing the character of humility, and submitting yourself to God, you can learn to love as Jesus loved. (Fellowship B, 4 weeks, video series by Bill Hull, Frankie G)

Sharing The Bible: Once you know what a passage means, how do you share that meaning effectively with others? Maybe this would come up with your family or a small group or even in a worship service sharing about the readings. We will learn a basic framework and tips on communication and weekly practice this with each other. (Fellowship A, 4 weeks, Pete L)

Women Walking Together: A relaxed and informal space for women of all ages, seasons and walks of life to freely connect, form community, and enjoy time together. This is a non-intimidating place if you are new, feel lost or not sure where you fit. (Room 101)

New Classes Next Week

Blessings in Disguise - We often do not see things in our life as God sees them. He said that we are blessed when we may be in a "bad" place. We will unwrap this concept as we focus on Matthew 5 and Luke 6 - the Beatitudes and Jesus' words of blessings and woes. (Leader: Joe L, Fellowship A)

Simplify: Unclutter Your Soul - In this video series by Bill Hybels, you'll discover how to stop living at such a frenetic pace and begin charting a new course toward satisfaction, purpose, and significance. Join Bill to discover the power of simplicity in your schedule, work, finances, relationships, and soul. (Facilitated by Melony B, Fellowship B)
