

Do Good with Jesus

Eyeglasses to Help Others See

We are doing a Eyeglass Drive to send good, but no longer used, eyeglasses to MOST (Mission Opportunities Short Term) who then sort, test, repackage and then take them to developing countries. Gently used eyeglasses for adults and children, both prescription and non-prescription, can enable:

- An adult to secure a job to support his or her family
- A child to succeed in school
- A senior to continue to live independently
- A mother or father to see their child's face clearly for the first time
- People to hear the Gospel message while they are being fitted for glasses

This simple act of charity has the possibility of impacting many lives for years to come. If you have any unbroken eyeglasses that you will not use anymore, please put them in the container at the Connect Center by October 31. After that, Trish R will send them to MOST.

Our next blood drive will be on Tuesday, Nov 12, from 1:00 pm - 6:00 pm. There are plenty of times available to give the gift of life. Sign up in the lobby, call Marian (503-775-2164) or online at RedCrossBlood.org and enter BeautSaviorPDX.

Pick up your prayer guide to pray for the Hindu people who live in darkness away from Jesus. The guides can be found at the Connect Center. We will pray from Oct 20 - Nov 3.

Frequently Asked Questions

What kind of service can I expect? We have a beautiful mix of traditional hymns and contemporary songs. We project words and lyrics on the wall for ease of reading and participating. You are welcome to wear whatever you feel comfortable in when around other people.

How about my children? We have a Family Message during the service where an adult accompanies the children to the front for their own message. Art bags are available in the lobby to help children focus on age-related papers. Upstairs is a staffed nursery for babies and toddlers and a cry room at the back right for nursing or fussy little ones.

When and how do you serve communion? On the 1st & 3rd Sunday. The rows of people are ushered to front kneelers where the elements are offered by elders with multiple options based on preference.

Do you have Sunday School classes for all ages? Yes, though in the summer we only have one class for adults and children. See bulletin.

How do I get involved? Check out our website: www.bsllc.com/DoGood/WithinBSLC. Someone will then get in touch with you.

We have a staffed nursery upstairs for any tired or restless young ones (ages infant to 4 years), as well as a Cry Room at the back of the sanctuary with speakers for hearing the service.

October Monthly Verse

“Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and my burden is light.” Matthew 11.28-30

Amos

You can also take notes to keep on the BSLC app.

Curl Up with a Good Book

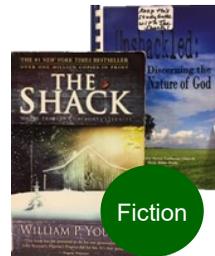

The crackle of fire is a pleasant sound these days. Here are some books to keep you cozy by your fire or under a fuzzy blanket. Let your imagination and intellect be challenged.

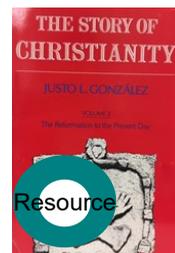

Adam Raccoon and the Mighty Giant by Glen Keane: Help your early readers to grasp that even scary giants are waiting to hear that the King loves him. Give your littles a story that will make that happy, scared, courageous and then even more happy.

In the Trenches by Reggie White: It's football season! One of the greatest players for the Packers shares his story on the gridiron and community. Hear from his own words how God used him to pummel opponents of truth and leave everything on the line as an athlete, advocate and humble man.

The Shack + Bible Study by William Young: Follow the story of a sad abduction of a young girl that leads a father to encounter the Triune God. Through all of his questions, anger and doubts he receives patient love from the Three who take on human form just for him. There is an accompanying bible study that we did as a church-wide study that you are welcome to use as you go through this book.

The Story of Christianity (3 Volumes) by Justo Gonzalez: Pastor Mark says if you like history, Dr. Gonzalez writes in an easy-to-comprehend style. He brings to life the people, dramatic events and shaping ideas during each period, keynoting crucial theological developments. His biographical insights reveal how individual lives mirror and clarify core theological concerns and developments.

ADULTS

Haunting Prophets - In the month of October, much attention is given to ghosts and goblins and other spooky stuff. And during our worship services and adult class, we expect to be “haunted” by the spirits of long-ago as well. These will not be undead zombies stalking us or disembodied apparitions floating about, but holy men of God: prophets like Jonah and Amos, Obadiah and Micah. Each Sunday, one of these will show up to describe in their own words the essence of their message to people who lived thousands of years ago. But the spooky thing is how relevant their messages still are in our day and age!

All Women Invited

The LCMS has an organization that is just for women. It is called the Lutheran Women's Missionary League or LWML for short. Next Saturday, all women are welcome to join the BSLC contingent at the Mt. Hood Zone Fall Rally, where groups from 18 area congregations will gather at Ascension Lutheran Church (1440 SE 182nd Ave, Portland Oregon 97233) from 9:00 a.m. -1:00 p.m. Lunch is provided. The rally includes an Ingathering for SnowCap Community Charities for: baby food stage 2 only, canned fruit, canned tuna, peanut butter, women's new undies, hygiene items (especially shampoo), and baby wipes will be collected and taken to the Rally. A carpool from BSLC will meet at 8:00am. For more information, contact Eunice Mackenzie or any LWML member (hint: they may be wearing purple).

Student Connexion

The youth are heading to the Student Connexion, a conference just for young people who are cool with following Jesus. Since it will be Fri and Sat at nearby GracePointe in Milwaukie, we will do a two-fer: A mission conference/all nighter! The conference is two days, so we will go to the conference Friday night, then head back to BSLC to chat, pray, play games and sleep, and then go to part 2 of the conference the next day! Register on the web by Oct 15. We will also need an extra male chaperone since Mark will be out of town. Contact Kathy@bslc.com if you have some time to give to our youth.

GriefShare Still Open

The grief recovery support group called GriefShare. Began on Thursday, but it is not too late to join the group. All sharing is confidential and received with grace and compassion. Join us in Fellowship B at 1:00 p.m. on next Thursday. This is for anyone, not just BSLC people and will be during the day.
