Change of Anna's Hours and Responsibilities

In the past few months, God has been clearly calling me toward a season of more time with my kiddos, Addalyn (4) and Ethan (2). I have decided to shift from my 25 hour a week role as "Director of Discipleship" to a reduced role one day a week (8-10 hours) in order to heed that calling.

I truly love hanging around all you fine people, so I will miss not being in the office as much, but I am also so looking forward to this unique season in front of me with my littles, and am delighted that I can still be here one day a week too! I have shifted from a broader oversight role to a more narrow focus on developing strong shared leadership in women's ministry, discipleship, and among our core leadership teams.

What this means:

This means that between this change for me and Paul Potter's retirement, a couple months ago, we are going to be short-staffed for a time. There will be a period of reassessing our staffing needs before re-hiring. For now, we have a diminished capacity and will not be able to accomplish all that we previously were able to, for a season. Please bear with us! Our hard-working staff could use your grace... and your help! We will soon be unveiling some new volunteer opportunities to help fill some of the gaps... so stay tuned!

What is Love

Author Unknown

Sooner or later we begin to understand that love is more than verses on valentines and romance in the movies. We begin to know that love is here and now, real and true, the most important thing in our lives. For love is the creator of our favorite memories and the foundation of our fondest dreams. Love is a promise that is always kept, a fortune that can never be spent, a seed that can flourish in even the most unlikely of places. And this radiance that never fades, this mysterious and magical joy, is the greatest treasure of all - one known only by those who love.

While the author of the above may be unknown the author of this verse is God who assures us: "Love never fails..." I Corinthians 13:8

Communion Information

Altar: Sue

Elders: John / Chuck
Lee / Scott / Kurt

In 1 Corinthians 11, Paul tells us of the power of Communion to forgive sins and unite us to Jesus and each other. Paul invites each of us to examine our self so that we receive this gift well. Those who receive communion well are baptized Christians who:

1. Trust in Jesus as their Savior who provides full forgiveness through His death on the cross.
2. Repent of all known sins, wanting to change their life.

In this gift we received the real presence of Jesus and a real unity with each other. If you are not in agreement it is best to refrain and then come and discuss this with a pastor. If a child has been prepared for communion by formal instruction, they are invited to receive this gift. Anyone may come to receive a blessing. Grape juice and gluten/soy/dairy/nut/corn/yeast-free options are available upon request.

Simplify: Unclutter Your Soul: In this video series by Bill Hybels, you'll discover how to stop living at such a frenetic pace and begin charting a new course toward satisfaction, purpose, and significance. Join Bill to discover the power of simplicity in your schedule, work, finances, relationships, and soul. (Facilitated by Melony B, Fellowship C)

Women Walking Together: A relaxed and informal space for women of all ages, seasons and walks of life to freely connect, form community, and enjoy time together. This is a non-intimidating place if you are new, feel lost or not sure where you fit. (Room 101)
