

Do Good with Jesus

Work Together

Set aside one of these days to help on our Work Days. Lunch will be provided; just bring your gloves, smile and energy. November 5 - December 3

Our next blood drive will be on Tuesday, November 15, from 2:30 pm - 5:30 pm. Sign up today in the lobby or contact Marian S.

Family Member Sessions - The goal is for you to get to hear our heart about who we are, what we believe, and what we do as we follow Jesus. And for us to hear your heart, and what you believe, and what you do as you follow Jesus. As a church we have taken an interesting road to get to where we are and we are guessing the same is true for you.

We are planning to meet for three Wednesdays (November 2, 9, and 16) from 6-8pm. Dinner will be provided and there is child care for little kids (3 and under) and fun groups for kids of all ages older than that.

We hope that you are willing to join us. You can respond back with questions or an RSVP to Frankie@bslc.com.

Change of Anna's Hours and Responsibilities

In the past few months, God has been clearly calling me toward a season of more time with my kiddos. I have decided to shift from my 25 hour a week role as "Director of Discipleship" to a reduced role one day a week (8-10 hours) in order to heed that calling. I have shifted from a broader oversight role to a more narrow focus on developing strong shared leadership in women's ministry, discipleship, and among our core leadership teams.

What this means:

This means that between this change for me and Paul Potter's retirement, a couple months ago, we are going to be short-staffed for a time. There will be a period of reassessing our staffing needs before re-hiring. For now, we have a diminished capacity and will not be able to accomplish all that we previously were able to, for a season. Please bear with us! Our hard-working staff could use your grace... and your help! We will soon be unveiling some new volunteer opportunities to help fill some of the gaps... so stay tuned!

The Value of Community

When we preach the gospel to one another in close-knit community, there is spiritual growth that changes us individually and as a whole. That change causes us to position for an outward focus and encourage gospel transformation in the communities outside the church walls.

As much as I love gathering with the whole of the local church for corporate worship, there is something powerfully unique about an intimate gathering around a living room, a small classroom, or a dining room table that forces us to think differently than when we are in a big room for worship.

Small groups, in fact, are where much of the theology taught in our pulpits begins to be fleshed out in conversation and action. If you want your church to be on mission, teach it from the pulpit and equip your people to wrestle with it in small groups. It's messy that way, but it's fruitful.

4 Reasons Small Groups are Vital to Your Church's Health - Ed S

Guy's Young and Old Annual Breakfast - Sign up in the lobby area beginning November 6th to take part in the annual Thanksgiving morning breakfast. The all-you-can-eat breakfast will satisfy everyone at Denny's Banquet facility (82nd Dr) north of Hwy 212/Clackamas Fred Meyer from 7:30-9:30 am.

More info will follow. We also will have prizes, drawings, and lots of cellular accessories you could walk away with.
